My dear Aunt.

I am contemplating a trip to Boston Saturday and write to inquire if you will be at home at that time as I may drop in to spend one night with you. I expect to ~~stay~~ go on the excursion which will last 3 days. I am not certain if this card will find you in Lowell as this must be the time you had planned to go to Canada. Whose turn is it to write? It seems to me I wrote last. Am going to Boston with Laura. If you are going to be home, write by return mail how we can reach you by trolley from Boston. I think I could find you O.K. if we go by train. we should take the Mt Vernon & Broadway car & get off at Mt Vernon street. Is that it?

Tell me if I have the right address 171 Cross St.

Yours lovingly
Ida.

If I do not get an answer by Thursday or Friday the latest will ~~[illegible]~~ infer that you are not home in Lowell.
